About El Rancho de las Golondrinas

El Rancho de las Golondrinas, "The Ranch of the Swallows," was founded 300 years ago as a paraje — stopping place — on El Camino Real, the Royal Road to Mexico City. Today, it is a one-of-a-kind destination where the past comes to life and weekend programs are fun for the whole family!

The mission of El Rancho de las Golondrinas is to inspire learning and preserve the legacy of the land through encounters with the traditions and culture of New Mexico's Hispano past.

Las Golondrinas is open for self-guided tours from June through September, Wednesday-Sunday, 10 AM-4 PM. During the months of April, May and October, we are open Monday-Friday for guided tours by reservation only. Please allow at least two hours to visit as we are situated on 200 acres.

Visit the Swallow's Nest museum shop, featuring local arts and crafts, items produced on the museum grounds and period-appropriate toys and games.
