Vendor Guidelines
The Herb & Lavender Festival emphasizes products that connect plants with home and body. Spice mixes, essential oils and plant extracts for therapeutic and culinary use, hand crafted soaps, teas, candles, clothing, jewelry and inspirational home décor are popular products. Approximately 34 vendors participate.

To submit materials:
Send 5 images of what you are selling, along with a description including materials, process, who made it. Include prices and a SASE if you want images returned. Option to mailing pictures- include website link clearly indicating in your application what items are for sale and a description of who, how and where they are made, along with price. A jury will review all applications with priority given to those that tie to the theme of the Fair. If you are selling AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS, the NM Environment Department (NMED) requires that you fill out a Temporary Food Establishment (TFE) Application, form _03212016. Applications are available online at www.nmenv.state.nm.us. Return the completed TFE form with this application. DO NOT send it to the NMED.

Educational Demonstrations:
This festival is a hands-on, interactive event for all ages. In order to promote knowledge about plants and their traditional use for health and in the home and the cultural influence of plant exchange in New Mexico we invite selected vendors to demonstrate their skills and share their knowledge as part of the event.
