

EL RANCHO DE LAS GOLONDRINAS

The Southwest's Premier Living History Museum

Program

Friday, November 12:

Morning Sessions

8:00-9:00

Robert Martinez, New Mexico State Historian

La Ciénega: Pueblo y Paraje, An introduction to the Symposium and the history of La Ciénega.

9:00-10:00

Stephen S. Post, Independent Researcher, previously with New Mexico Office of Archaeological Studies.

An Archaeological Perspective on 8,000 Years of Continuity and Change within the Southern Santa Fe Corridor, Santa Fe County, New Mexico

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15-11:15

Dr. Eric Blinman, Director, New Mexico Office of Archaeological Studies

Archaeology within the Southern Santa Fe Corridor, Santa Fe County, New Mexico from about 1250 AD through 1600

11:15-12:15

Hilario Romero, former New Mexico State Historian

Rio Santa Fe and its Upper and Lower Communities: An Overview

12:15-1:00

Lunch (with opportunity to view artifact collections from the Sanchez Site, AKA LA 20,000)

Afternoon Sessions

1:00 – 2:00

Dr. Rick Hendricks, New Mexico State Records Administrator

Land Grant History of La Ciénega and La Cieneguilla

2:00- 3:00

EL RANCHO DE LAS GOLONDRINAS

The Southwest's Premier Living History Museum

Dr. Camilla Bustamante,

LA 44 – El Paraje El Alamo: Evidence and Oral Tradition

3:00 –5:00

Field visits to archaeological sites and historic buildings on Museum property (acequia, Camino Real trail segment, archaeological sites)

*There will be an opportunity to view artifact collections from the Sanchez Site (LA 20,000) throughout the afternoon.

Saturday, November 13:

Morning Sessions

8:00-9:00

Mike Taylor, Board Member, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

Dan Goodman, Museum Director, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

A Historic Landscape, Its Preservation and Interpretation: El Rancho de las Golondrinas Cultural Landscape Report and Master Plan.

9:00-10:00

Amanda Mather, Curator of Collections, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

Archaeology at El Rancho de las Golondrinas

10:00-10:15 Break

10:15 - 11:15

Dr. Heather B. Trigg, Research Scientist in the Andrew Fiske Center for Archaeological Research at the University of Massachusetts Boston.

A Picture of 17th -Century Spanish Lifeways from Archaeological Research at LA 20,000

11:15 -12:15

Carmella Padilla, Author and Cultural Historian

'Peace at Last': The La Ciénega Legacy of Leonora Scott Muse Curtin and Leonora Curtin Paloheimo

12:15-1:15

Lunch

EL RANCHO DE LAS GOLONDRINAS

The Southwest's Premier Living History Museum

Afternoon Sessions

1:15-2:15

Community Panel chaired by

Carl Dickens, former La Ciénega Valley Association President

JJ Gonzales, Board Member, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

Camilla Bustamante, La Cienega Valley Association President

Henry Mee, Agua Fria Village Association

Sean Paloheimo, Assistant Museum Director, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

A discussion of the relevance of the Symposium to El Rancho de las Golondrinas Museum, the communities of La Cienega and La Cieneguilla, and the greater Santa Fe area.

2:15-3:15

George Paloheimo, Board Member and Director Emeritus, El Rancho de las

Golondrinas Dr. Carla Aragon, Board Member, El Rancho de las Golondrinas

The Evolution of El Rancho de las Golondrinas and Celebrating the first Fifty Years of the Museum and What the Next 50Years Can Bring

3:15 - 5:00

Field visits to torreón archaeological site, Las Golondrinas and Baca placitas