Vendor Guidelines

The Fair features a Renaissance style marketplace with thematically decorated tents with vendors selling arts and crafts, food, beer and mead; 4 stages for entertainment. Vendor Applications will be reviewed by a panel with priority given to hand-crafted, and regionally made products that reflect the Renaissance theme. Popular products include Renaissance fashion, armor, jewelry, health and body products and occult themed items and services.

Agricultural Products

If you have food products that you will be giving out as samples for tasting, the NM Environment Dept (NMED) requires that you fill out a Temporary Food Establishment application, form _03212016 and a copy of your ANSI certified food handler's card. Applications and more information are available online at www.nmenv.state.nm.us. Return the completed TFE form and food handler's card with this application. DO NOT send it to the NMED.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST: Due by April 1, 2022

- Completed application form, including contact information, type of space requested.
- 5 images of what you are selling along with product descriptions (materials, who made it, how it was made) and prices. Please email, mail, or include your website.
- All fees. Make checks payable to El Rancho de las Golondrinas. If you are not accepted, they will be returned.
- Agricultural Product Vendors: Completed Temporary Food Establishment application from the NM Environment Dept. DO NOT send the completed TFE to the NM Environment Dept.

All Vendors:

1. Full refund if cancellation notice is given at least 30 days prior to the date of Festival. No refunds for cancellations made less than 30 days from the event.
2. No pets allowed on El Rancho de las Golondrinas (the Museum) grounds.
3. No rain dates and no refunds in the event of inclement weather.
4. No smoking OR vaping on the festival grounds (vendor parking lot is OK).
5. No disruptive behavior. Vendors disturbing the peace will be escorted out without refund.
6. No massages, whether the services are free or sold.
7. Vendors exhibit all work at their own risk. El Rancho de las Golondrinas (the Museum) assumes no liability for damage, loss or theft of Vendor belongings. Security will be on-site during the festival.
8. A 5# ABC type fire extinguisher must be on-site in vendor tents AND Covered Artisan Plaza Booth vendors.
9. All Vendors requesting tent space: BRING YOUR OWN TENT, tables, chairs, and display supports unless other arrangements have been made in advance with the Vendor Coordinator. New Mexico weather is unpredictable. Please make sure to use heavy duty tent spikes or sandbags to anchor your tent. El Rancho de las Golondrinas is not responsible for tents that are or become damaged.
10. Two or more vendors may share a booth, but each person must make a separate application. The joint application can be sent in one packet. If only one artist is accepted, the other artist is responsible for the space rental.
11. The Museum will try to accommodate special requests or requirements, but no guarantees can be made. This includes vendor placement. Efforts to assign a prior vendor space will be made but cannot be guaranteed.
12. Only those items listed on the approved application may be sold at the festival. NO ADDITIONAL PRODUCTS ARE TO BE SOLD, including baked goods and beverages. Work that falls below the quality represented on the application shall be removed from sale at the discretion of the Museum.
13. If you are submitting work as the artist's representative, put the artist's name on the application and merchandise. List yourself as the representative and sign the application.
14. Vendors are responsible for paying Santa Fe County Gross Receipts tax-Check NM Taxation and Revenue for the rate.
15. If the Museum grounds are muddy due to excessive rain, the Museum reserves the right to prohibit any vehicles from driving onto the grounds. This may require hand carrying supplies and/or delaying set-up or take-down.
16. Vendors not abiding by the RULES AND REGULATIONS will not be invited back.
17. RVs are not allowed on the festival grounds. If you arrive in an RV you will need to bring a handcart or alternate vehicle to transport products for setting up.

Please read and initial the following regarding the Museum's alcohol and weapons policy. Violation will result in dismissal without refund.
