

El Rancho de las Golondrinas
Policy on the Sale of CBD/Hemp Products at Festivals

1. Product manufactured in New Mexico:

Manufacture Permit:

- All vendors that manufacture their own CBD/Hemp product must have a permit from NMED.
- All vendors that plan to sell CBD/Hemp product(s) must present any/all NMED permits with their application. *Submission of application and required documentation is not a guarantee of acceptance to a festival.

“Co-packing”:

- If you have a product manufactured for you by another NM-based manufacturer, the manufacturer must have approval from NMED to produce the product. If this is the case, you must have documentation on company letterhead from the NMED-permitted manufacturer to verify the product is approved by NMED and manufactured by the permitted company. If you receive a “white labeled” product and label it yourself, you must provide NMED approval of the label.
- All vendors that plan to sell a CBD/Hemp product manufactured by another NM-based manufacturer must present proof of approval by NMED by all parties involved with their application. *Submission of application and required documentation is not a guarantee of acceptance to a festival.

2. Product manufactured outside New Mexico:

- El Rancho de las Golondrinas supports local New Mexican business, vendors, and their products. Therefore, any/all approved CBD/Hemp products sold at the festivals must be grown and manufactured in New Mexico. Any/all CBD/Hemp products grown and manufactured outside of New Mexico will not be accepted.
